Go Ahead, Open Up

Dear Ann Landers: Recently you put down salespeople who yak on the phone and keep customers waiting. You said they were "Rude rude rude."

And now, will you say something to the rude rude customers who come to the store before and after hours and try to get in?

My husband and I own a small shop. Our shop opens for business at 9 a.m. We close at 5:30 p.m. We get down to work at about 8:30 a.m. and we need every minute to check stock, mail and open packages, make telephone calls, and do countless other chores.

Yet, almost every morning some inconsiderate slab bangs on the door 20 minutes before we are supposed to open. If we don't open up they go to the back door and holler. "I know you're in there."

We have this same problem at closing. Although we have our hours posted clearly in the front window many people beat on the door and want us to open up for them.

Please tell the American public that this is rude rude rude. Thank you. — ALSO HUMAN BEINGS.

Dear Human: It may be rude rude rude, but if I owned a store I wouldn't mind opening up for a customer who was a little early or a little late. It might be the best sale of the day.

Of course, I've never owned a store and I could be wrong. How about some word from more of you on the other side of the cash register?

Dear Ann Landers: This is a reply to my wife who is in the same category with "Getting Notions." She announced unashamedly that she could not remain true to me because I am "low-key, undemonstrative, unaffectionate, and indifferent."

Will you please tell me, Ann, how a man can work up any enthusiasm for a hypocritical, sanctimonious, self-centered, detached, insensitive, erratic, twisted, stupid, unresponsive, uncommunicative, warped, sullen, capricious, unpredictable, deceitful, punitive, self-righteous, obstinate woman who has never been wrong about anything in her whole life?

And don't tell me I need a doctor. What I need is a woman. — SMART BUT DUMB.

Dear Smart But: You must be dumber than you are smart — or you would not have married a hypocritical, sanctimonious, self-centered detached, insensitive, erratic, twisted, stupid, unresponsive, uncommunicative, warped, sullen, capricious, unpredictable, deceitful, self-righteous, obstinate woman who has never been wrong about anything in her whole life.

Dear Ann Landers: Sometimes your advice is so crazy that I think you are putting us on. The answer you gave to the woman whose husband divides the newspaper with her and then falls asleep under his half before she gets a chance to read it burned me up.

Why did you tell her to buy two papers? Why didn't you tell her that the creep could sleep under yesterday's paper? If he's asleep what difference does it make?

And by the way your new picture is terrible. You look like you're in jail, with all those stripes. I don't know why I'm wasting a stamp because you'll never print my letter, but I had to have my say. — HONEST.

Dear Honest: I agree with you about that picture. By the time you read this letter, I hope the paper is printing another one.

And now about the creep sleeping under the newspaper. If the wife could catch him just before he dozes off and substitute yesterday's paper that would be a peachy solution.

Thanks. If you have trouble getting along with your parents if you can't get them to let you live your own life, send for Ann Landers' booklet "Bugged By Parents? How To Get More Freedom." Send 50 cents in coin with your request and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Press-Herald, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. © 1966, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate
